MUNICIPALITY OF NEWCASTLE.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir WILLIAM THOMAS DENISON, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor General in and over all Her Majesty's Colonies of New South Wales, Tasmania, Victoria, South Australia, Western Australia, and Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of New South Wales, passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled, "An Act for establishing Municipal Institutions," and commonly styled and cited as "The Municipalities Act of 1858," it was amongst other things enacted, that any City, Town, or Hamlet, then or thereafter established, or any Rural District, might, as therein provided, be constituted a Municipality; and it was by the said Act enacted, that the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, might, on the receipt of a Petition signed by not fewer than fifty householders resident within any such City, Town, or Hamlet, then or thereafter established, and on the advice aforesaid, might, by Proclamation published in like manner, declare such City, Town, or Hamlet, or such Rural District, to be a Municipality, by a name to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and might also, by the same or any other Proclamation, define the limits and boundaries thereof, and that upon such publication the Municipality should be constituted accordingly: And it was further enacted that, if any such Petition should contain a request that the District might be divided into Wards, the Governor, with the advice aforesaid, might, by the same or any other Proclamation, declare such Municipality to be divided if the population thereof exceed one thousand into three Wards, and if below that number into two Wards: And whereas a Petition, signed by one hundred and four householders resident within the City and Suburbs of Newcastle, in the County of Northumberland, in the Colony of New South Wales, praying that the same might be declared a Municipality and divided into three Wards under the provisions of the said Act, and stating that the number of the inhabitants thereof was two thousand four hundred, was presented to the Governor, the substance and prayer of which Petition were duly published in the Government Gazette, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act: And whereas no Counter Petition signed by a greater number of householders resident within the said City and Suburbs of Newcastle, was received by the Colonial Secretary within three months from the date of such publication: And whereas the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act, determined to declare by Proclamation such City and Suburbs of Newcastle, to be a Municipality by the name hereinafter mentioned, and to divide the said Municipality into three Wards with the limits and boundaries hereinafter defined: Now, therefore, I, Sir WILLIAM THOMAS DENISON, the Governor General and Governor-in-Chief aforesaid, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act and with the advice of the Executive Council do by this my Proclamation declare that the District to be divided into three Wards hereinafter described and named, shall be a Municipality within the meaning of the said Act, and that the limits and boundaries of the said Wards forming the said District shall be as follows, that is to say:

THE MUNICIPALITY OF NEWCASTLE.

City Ward.—Commencing on the north boundary of the Municipality of Newcastle, on the south shore of Port Hunter, at a point where the northerly prolongation of a line along the centre of Perkins-street intersects that boundary; and bounded thence on the west by that line southerly to the centre of Church-street; on the south by a line along the centre of Church-street, and its easterly prolongation to the sea; and on the east and north by the Municipality boundary to the point of commencement.

Macquarie Ward.—Commencing on the east boundary of the Municipality of Newcastle, on the south shore of Port Hunter, a point where the easterly prolongation of a line along the centre of Perkins-street intersects that boundary, and bounded thence on the north by that line westerly to Darby-street, thence by a line along the centre of Darby-street southerly to Laman street, and thence by a line along the centre of Laman-street, and its westerly prolongation to the south boundary of the Municipality, and on the south, on the west, again on the south, and on the east by the Municipality boundary to the point of commencement.

Honeystreet Ward.—Commencing on the north boundary of the Municipality of Newcastle, on the south shore of Port Hunter, at a point where the northerly prolongation of a line along the centre of Perkins-street intersects that boundary, and bounded thence on the east by that line southerly to the centre of Church-street; on the south by a line westerly along the centre of Church-street to Darby-street, thence by a line along the centre of Darby-street southerly to Laman-street, thence by a line along the centre of Laman-street and its westerly prolongation to the Municipality boundary, and on the remainder of the south, on the west and on the north by the Municipality boundary to the point of commencement.

And I do hereby with the advice aforesaid, declare and direct that such Municipality shall be called by the name of "The Municipality of Newcastle."

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Government House, Sydney, this seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and in the twenty-second year of Her Majesty’s Reign.

(L.S.) W. DENISON.

By His Excellency’s Command,

CHARLES COWPER.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!
